The Miss Mesquite entrants comprise six with the remainder participating for the title of Miss Mesquite Outstanding Teen.

Competing for Miss Mesquite will be Lisa Henderson, Mariana Martinez, Jamie Francis, Tara Hansen, Polina Etkareva and Emilee Rappleye.

Those seeking the title of Miss Mesquite Outstanding Teen include McKenna Fielding, Kaitelyn Dye, Madisyn Glieden and Tiffany Hunt.

Handing over titles to the new queens will be 2011 Miss Mesquite Elizabeth Mercado and 2011 Miss Mesquite Outstanding Teen Hannah Covey. This year's winners will receive more than $5,000 in scholarships.

For the past three weeks, the contestants have been participating in various events including the Goddesses on the Green fundraiser sponsored by Elan Woman Magazine, the Conestoga Golf Course and Sherry McGhee St. Farm at the Conestoga Golf Course in Mesquite. The event featured a putting competition, golf lessons and a dinner.

In addition, Mercado conducted a blood donation day called "Give it Up" where the Virgin Valley Art Association conducted a "Love to Draw" display.

Covey's platform of "Go Girls," a program developed by Adidas Marketing Rep Michelle Delloso, was presented at various events raising self-esteem. She also performed and promoted her platform at Concert on the Grass at the amphitheater in Mesquite.

Doors for the pageant will open at 2:30 p.m. The crowning will take place at about 5 p.m.
