Fresno PAL's Isidro Ochoa scored a second-round stoppage of Mario Martinez of Nevada on Friday to advance to the championship of the 13-14-year-old, 106-pound division of the National Junior Golden Gloves tournament in Mesquite, Nev.

Four other Fresno-based fighters also advanced to today's finals. Robert Papas Cosio (11-12, 80 pounds) defeated Israel Alvarez of Washington in a three-round decision. Gary Salazar (15-16, 119) stopped Hakeem Stamper of New Jersey in the third round, and Efren Lopez (15-16, 114) decisioned Jhordy Ramirez of Santa Maria.

Aleman Boxing Fresno's Jett Blackwell (9-10, 110) was a winner by walkover when his opponent didn't show up to weigh-ins.

Aleman's Jorge Ruiz (9-10, 65) and Kevin Mendoza (9-10, 70) lost semifinals as did Marc Castro (11-12, 75) of Fresno PAL.
