A $10,000 World Series of Beer Pong VII Mega Satellite Event scheduled July 29-31 here at the CasaBlanca Resort will send the top co-ed team and the top female teams to the World Series of Beer Pong in Las Vegas early next year.

The Las Vegas event will be presented Jan. 1-5 at a Las Vegas Strip hotel.

With nearly 100 teams attracting about 200 competitors to Mesquite, strong pre-event registration numbers from many Utah entries have spurred the overall field in the past couple of weeks.

According to the event co-founder Billy Gaines, many will attend the event in Mesquite for the fun and the camaraderie of the three-day event about 80 miles from Las Vegas.

“Some of our competitors can opt to use the rule that allows for the consumption of water rather than alcohol,” said Gaines, who is currently planning a move to Las Vegas.”

Gaines added that no female had ever won the event.

“To be able to play in this tournament at a great resort city is a really cool weekend getaway for both males and females young and old,” he said. “Whether it’s a bachelorette or bachelor party throughout the event or simply a fun and affordable weekend getaway, this is going to be a not-to-be-missed event.”

Starting at $150 per person, the entry includes two nights stay at the CasaBlanca along with entrance into the tournament.

Check-ins will be taken on Friday evening, July 29 with the first session of play on Friday night.

All day Saturday, July 30 will be tournament play at the CasaBlanca. The winners will be crowned that night with checkout on Sunday, July 31

Further information may be found at www.bpong.com/returntomesquite.com. and pre-registration is open until Friday, July 22.
