

9:00 PM, Jul. 7, 2011 | Comments

Recommend Be the first of your friends to recommend this.

Among the bands playing in the first Mesquite Jazz Festival on July 15-17 is the group Titanic, which is from Los Angeles. Submitted photo / Submitted photo

ADVERT

MORE HEADLINES

- Country, rock collide on new releases by Old Neil Young
- Some fun monkey business in "Zookeeper"
- Great sounds expected from jazz festival

MOST POPULAR

1. Cheryl Ann Maher
2. Council approves winery plan
3. St. George man found guilty in murder-for- case
4. Larrabee sentenced in child sex abuse cas
5. Rose Keller

Arrests 7/19

Weekend Arrests

Snake car tur heads in downtown Phoenix

MESQUITE - Another first will converge on Mesquite when the inaugural Mesquite Jazz Festival is presented on the grounds of the CasaBlanca Resort on July 15-17.

Scheduled to perform at the event will be four groups, including Reynolds Brothers Rhythm Rascals of Santa Ana, Calif.; Titanic, a Los Angeles-based group; Uptown Lowdown Jazz Band of Seattle, Wash; and Sally's Jazznuts.

Activities will kick off July 15 at 7 p.m. in the CasaBlanca Showroom.

Twenty Years of Jazz by Rose Marie Barr begins the schedule Saturday at 10 a.m.

Whether playing a hot ragtime number or a sultry love ballad, Barr is at home on the piano. Her performance itinerary includes all pop standards of the 1920s through the 1950s.

Barr, who is from Washington state and married to the band's leader, Bert Barr, plays piano with the Uptown Bands, which includes Ragtime, Dixieland and Swing music. She is a versatile pianist and taught music for many years.

Barr will return later Saturday to do an additional 20 years with a performance covering the next two decades. Jammers who like to play alongside the bands will be invited to bring their axe to perform with the various groups.

The grand finale is scheduled for July 17 with the Gospel Hour led by Marilyn Keller.

Each band will follow Keller in an event expected to last until about noon.

"This all came together because I'm a member of Group Leaders of America," explained producer Sally McKay, who lives in Oceanside, Calif. "We were in Palm Springs at one of the trade shows and I ran into Petra Jones of the CasaBlanca Resort. Petra explained that the CasaBlanca had been looking for a jazz festival anyway, so we got to talking.

"From there, we came up with a date for the Mesquite Jazz Festival. We're going to offer flavorings of Dixieland, Big Band and Swing in what promises to be three days of fun. There will be dancing, venues for listening and there also will be someone there from the Glass Slipper which has dance shoes and apparel.

"Ladies, be sure to get your parasols out and bring them with you. There will be a Bourbon Street Parade much like you find in New Orleans although it will be inside."

McKay said followers of the event are expected to journey from Oregon, California, Arizona, Washington and across the border in Canada.

One, two and three-day festival passes are available starting at $25. More information can be found by visiting www.mesquitejazz.com or www.jazznuts.com; or by calling McKay 760-754-7081.